

Internship- Global Human Rights Defence (GHRD)

GHRD is offering unpaid internship positions at the Human Rights Division for students and/or recently graduated students with a major in Human Rights. The interns will assist the human rights officer in reporting, lobbying and research related to GHRD's activities in South Asia.

Tasks include:

- Media monitoring of news in South Asia (Human rights news scan)
 - Preparation of human rights reports.
 - Drafting of articles for the website;
 - Assist with preparations and produce materials for national and international meetings, seminars and lobby activities.
 - Assist with various events held by GHRD.
-

Profile

- University student in international human rights law or relevant field
 - Affinity with international human rights standards and procedures
 - Profound interest in human rights in South Asia
 - Flexible, committed and able to work with minimal supervision
 - Fluency in English (written and oral)
 - Communicative and willing to work in an international environment
-

All positions with GHRD requires flexibility in terms of working hours and tasks performed.

Vivek K.R

Human Rights Officer
v.ravikumar@ghrd.org

Global Human Rights Defence
Laan van Meerdervoort 70
2517 AN Den Haag
The Netherlands